Here's how it works

This approximately 6-hours workshop will be based on your team's real-world tasks and ambitions.

After clarifying your team's vision, we will identify the key initiatives that are essential for your success.

In a next step, we will agree on realistic ambitions and formulate the Objectives that will have an impact with respect to your strategic goals.

Setting ambitious Key Results for each Objective completes the creation of a framework for focused execution.

To ensure sustainable success, we will offer an experienced coach to help review and adjust your OKRs on a regular basis.

Workshop will be based on your team's actual remit, objectives, and tasks.

Workshop facilitators will focus on identifying core initiatives and sensibly measurable results.

Workshop will be executed by OKR-experienced facilitators.

Resulting Objectives and Key Results will help focus and deliver on your team's goals.

"I feel strongly that goal setting is the best way to keep the execution machine on track." — John Doerr

FAQ

What's in it for me?

A guided reflection of your team's core reason for being, including the development of a meaningful team vision. Identification of the key initiatives that will have an impact towards realizing your ambitions. A means to decide between the important and distractions. Radical transparency with respect to your progress.

Who should participate?

Bring your whole team. If it's bigger than a „two pizza" team (i.e. 8-10 people) we will likely need some more workshop time to get everybody on board.

When do I see first results?

With OKRs being defined and agreed on, your team will become more productive almost immediately by focusing on the activities that are key to attaining relevant results.

Will OKRs work in my environment at all?

OKRs have been successfully implemented in a wide variety of industries and environments. If your team shares a remit, we'll be able to jointly identify OKRs that will boost your execution as well as self esteem.

Aren't we just duplicating Management Objectives?

Management- or Personal objectives and OKRs are two completely different categories. While management-set objectives are mostly meant to provide a basis for performance measurement, OKRs are all about team-driven focus of ambitions and execution.
